Winding up the Nance Ranch Project drive in Canyon are Lou Ritter, Jerry LaGrone, center, and Carroll Doshier. LaGrone was Canyon chairman and Doshier worked with the Panhandle-wide drive. More than $17,000 was raised here.

For Nance Ranch

Campaign Hits $17,000

Canyon raised $17,000 plus for the Nance Ranch Fund.

Jerry LaGrone, chairman of the drive here, and Carroll Doshier, one of the leaders in the Panhandle-wide campaign, finished up the Canyon drive Tuesday.

"No other town has done better in proportion to its population," Doshier declared.

"I have never worked on a drive that has been met with so much enthusiasm and I have worked on many of them," said LaGrone. "It proves to me that when the people of this community believe in a project they will see that it is successful."

Although no goal was set for Canyon at the beginning of the campaign, leaders in the drive had expressed hope that the community would raise at least $5,000. When the campaign was complete this figure had been tripled.

Goal for the Panhandle was set at least $100,000.

Doshier took personal charge of the kick-off dinner which opened the campaign here Jan. 12.

At that time Doshier stung his listeners by telling them that he had heard someone out in the area say Canyon probably would not support the drive.

Doshier wound up his talk by expressing confidence that Canyon would do its share.

The 2,390-acre Nance Ranch located 6 miles east of Canyon was donated to West Texas State University by Mrs. Lucille Nance Jones, widow of George Nance, and her husband, L. L. Jones.

The ranch is being devoted to mother cow and feed lot technology research as well as teaching.

James "Doc" Potts, Amarillo, who is chairman of the overall drive, said that although some state appropriated funds will be available for the school in its research projects once they are in full operation, no money is available initially to get them under way.

He explained that the $100,000 being raised is merely to get the project going.

He envisioned helicopter ambulance service to save the lives of injured and ill from outlying areas to need care.

"We don't need to apologize for asking for federal funds for this," he declared saying that a big percentage of accident victims are people from other areas and even other states.

Melin spoke of a conference for the aging and said that 20 percent of the people over 65 contacted said they did not have access to adequate medical care.

He said manpower training should be expanded saying that many young men wanting to be doctors can't do so because they can't get into medical schools.

Join Up Or Be Left Out Is Latest Word

BY TROY MARTIN

The time is at hand when political subdivisions must join a regional planning group or be left completely out of the 1,500 federal programs now in effect.

This is the substance of what Panhandle Regional Planning Director Ernest Clark told a general assembly of PRPC here Tuesday night.

Clark said that even now small communities not included in a planning group are not eligible for Federal Home Administration grants such as grants for adequate water and sewer facilities.

"It behooves an entity falling into this category to be included in a plan," Clark declared.

The PRPC director's statement came as a result of questioning from the audience.

Dr. D.E. Hackley of Spearman who heads up PRPC this year said an effort has been made to explain to various commissioners courts not in the PRPC that they can hold back the growth of communities within their counties by not qualifying them for grants.

"This is more complex all the time," Dr. Hackley explained prior to reports to the assembly by the PRPC director, two coordinators and a regional planner. Eddie Melin, PRPC health coordinator, told the group that guidelines are developing for a regional health plan which Dr. Hackley described as vital.

Turf Postponed, Tickets Pushed

Artificial turf for Buffalo Bowl is not a dead issue, but season ticket sales for 1971 is of main concern to supporters of the turf issue, according to Ray McCown, chairman of the turf campaign.

McCown, sales manager of Coca-Cola Bottling Company in Amarillo, said Tuesday afternoon the turf drive will begin September 1, 1971, but between now and then emphasis will be placed on filling Buffalo Bowl during the first season in the Missouri Valley Conference.

In a prepared statement, McCown said, "We are today launching a Panhandle-wide campaign to sell tickets (see TURF, page 11)

County Wheat Producers Begin Voting

Wheat producers in Randall County who want to vote absentee in the upcoming wheat referendum and producer board election will be able to do so at the County Extension Office beginning April 27, according to County Agricultural Agent John Brazzil.

"We will have ballots available for any producer who wants to vote absentee in the election between April 27 and May 10," says Brazzil. "On May 11 the Texas Wheat Producers Association will hold an election over a 34-county area to determine whether or not to assess producers not more than five mills per bushel on all wheat produced for purposes of research and promotion. At the same time, producers will have an opportunity to elect a nine-man producers board to administer funds for such a research (see WHEAT, page 11)

There are no common school districts in the county and about the only function of the board is to approve bus routes.

Christian's bill passed the House last Friday and now will go to the Senate for approval.

The bill, which will abolish the office of county school superintendent in counties of not less than 53,800 population nor more than 55,000 population applies to Randall County.

Schools in Randall County are now under the jurisdiction of either the Amarillo or Canyon independent school districts. At the present time there are no county schools in existence. And any remaining duties connected with the office are to be performed by the county clerk (see BOARD, page 11)

Sunday at 2 a.m. Daylight Saving Time begins, and the hour later policy will stay in effect until the last Sunday in October.

Carver Is PHF Head

Russell Carver of Amarillo was named president of the Panhandle Heritage Foundation at the regular board meeting Sunday at Amarillo Junior College.

Joe Gidden of Canyon was selected as first vice president.

Other new officers named Sunday were Mrs. Ralph Randal of Panhandle, secretary; Mrs. Emil Olson of Canyon, director at large; and L.P. (Pete) Gilvin, director at large.

Officers completing their terms in office are A.W. Lair of Canyon, third vice president; Jerry LaGrone, of Canyon, treasurer; Wales Madden, Jr., director at large.

Hutton Forecasts Voters At 30,000

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton Monday recommended that commissioners court provide $15,000 in next year's budget to purchase some 100 additional electronic voting machines.

Hutton predicted that voter registration will come to more than 30,000 next year and that this coupled with complexities brought on by redistricting and voting of 18-year-olds will make the purchase of additional machines necessary.

Hutton pointed out that voter strength of the county jumped from 14,684 in the 1964 Presidential election year to 22,634 in 1968 and that if the increase is as great next year there will be more than 30,000 voters in the county.

"The need for additional machines will depend a lot on how we vote 18-year-olds," Hutton said.

He said that since they will be voting a limited ballot, special machines may be set up for them or they may be voted on paper ballots. So far 18-year-olds may vote only in federal elections.

"Redistricting could also affect our needs," the county clerk said. "The more complicated redistricting is the more machines we will need for absentee voting. You can't use a machine for absentee voting and then use it

Storm Cellar Interest High

Bunches of storm cellars will be built this year, if the number of inquiries at the city building inspector's office tells a tale.

City manager George Louder said Tuesday that some 10 persons called the city hall Monday, after Hereford's disaster early Monday morning, inquiring about requirements for storm cellar installations.

"In the past we have had about one inquiry a month," Louder recalled. "So I guess you could say we have had about a 1,000 per cent increase in interest for storm cellars."

Louder also pointed out that all information can be obtained at the building inspector's office in the city hall.

What To Do

If A Tornado Strikes

BY MARGO CRABTREE
Where do we go, what do we do, how do we stay safe, and how do we help?

These are questions Canyon residents no doubt are asking this week following the disaster that struck Hereford in the wee hours Monday morning.

Baker I is Canyon's answer.

That's the nickname given the emergency plan tailor-made to fit Canyon.

Canyon city government heads, the fire chief, the police chief, and West Texas State University officials have collaborated on the plan to alert residents of impending danger, and if the danger strikes, to make certain aid and equipment are mobilized immediately.

Joe Rice, deputy fire chief, said disaster may strike in many forms, not just a tornado, although attention is focused in that direction at this time of the year.

He pointed out that a major fire, a train wreck similar to the one that occurred in Canyon in 1963, a plane crash or other disasters might result in persons needing to seek shelter, medical assistance and food provisions.

"Baker I is the procedure we will use to mobilize the city's forces in a hurry," said Rice Monday afternoon.

By "city's forces" Rice means all city employees, volunteer firemen and the city police.

"Our plan is brief, but it is more than adequate," Rice noted.

Baker I begins when the weather bureau issues a severe thunderstorm watch.

At this point key city personnel including the heads of the city's departments, fire chief and police chief are notified by the dispatcher at the sheriff's office.

If the thunderstorm watch turns into a "tornado watch" these same people are notified of the latest warning. Then if the watch develops into a tornado warning, other city officials are notified, such as firemen and policemen, and a constant watch around the city and county gets underway to spot a funnel if one appears.

"If a funnel is seen near Canyon, then the decision to sound the alarm is made immediately," Rice explained.

And that signal is eight blasts on the large fire siren. "If the alarm is sounded," (see TORNADO, page 11)

FROM THE CANYON RIM

A Lubbock state representative, Delwin L. Jones, is chairman of the House committee on congressional and legislative districts.

Jones is making an unabashed effort to gerrymander the Panhandle out of any political influence whatever.

The Jones plans calls for the 22nd Congressional District to extend from Randall to the north down to Winkler and Ector Counties to the south. The district jogs to the north to take in Randall and split Amarillo. It also jogs to take in Lubbock and Crosby Counties. This gives Lubbock the whip hand.

Bob Price will be put into District 24 with Graham Purcell in a district gerrymandered to give Purcell Wichita Falls and Price a split Amarillo and diluted strength.

I would not complain of being represented by George H. Mahon but I don't like the idea of the Panhandle being split in such a manner as to give us no actual representation as a group.

There is one man eminently qualified to exert pressure to prevent this gerrymandering. He is S. B. Whittenburg, publisher of The Amarillo-Globe Times. The Globe-

Times is the parent company of The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

Whittenburg should not be without some influence in the Hub city. I applaud what has always appeared to be a hands-off policy by the Whittenburgs where the editorial policy of The Avalanche-Journal is concerned but I think the future of the Panhandle as a political entity is of enough importance to justify leaders of this area exerting whatever influence they may have to maintain it.

Professor Jerry N. Kuhn of the University of Iowa College of Education says American children of elementary school age may be on the way to becoming innocent victims of the barrage of criticism of our country's history and political and educational systems.

"As charges and counter charges are hurled back and forth, few adults seem to reflect any awareness of the children's innate vulnerability in such a climate.

"Young children have in recent years been exposed to what appears to them to be a constant indictment of the American system.

"This comes about through unguided exposure to adult-oriented television, radio, magazine and newspaper coverage of current events."

He also said educational approaches which stress the seamy side of a historic figure's life at the expense of his contributions may be detrimental to building the character of the young.

"In addition," Kuhn went on, "in the current climate of conflict, children increasingly are in contact with such negative statements as 'All politicians are crooked and wouldn't be where they are if they had any genuine concern for the public good.'"

Kuhn said children in early grades need increased exposure to the favorable side of American life with stress on the goals and principals underlying the nation's history.

"A feeling of positiveness about their own society should be school's first goal," the educator declared.

Well, three cheers for Professor Jerry N. Kuhn.

People are concerned about Coach Gene Mayfield's tears over spring football practice.

Some of the best football coaches on earth are crying coaches.

Collie Huffman, head mentor at Shamrock, would have his public believe he doesn't have a chance — ever. But he usually emerges as a winner.

One of the worst cry babies I ever knew was Chesty Walker, and he was one of the greatest coaches I ever followed.

I covered his Phillips Blackhaws in 1947. One Friday we paid the Floydada Whirlwinds a visit. Chesty cried all week before the game. He cried all the way to the game. He was moaning at the kick off.

We had the Whirlwinds down 26-0 at the half time and finally beat them 42-6 after fielding all our reserves.

I don't expect Mayfield to win the Missouri Valley Conference the first year. I do expect him to win it within the next three years.

A fifth grade teacher at Rex Reeves recently handed out six weeks exams. The rule is that there is no talking allowed after the test papers are given the students.

One sober, slow spoken boy at the back of the room held up his hand and waved it frantically.

"What do you want?" the teacher asked.

"Can we have a word of prayer before we begin?" the fifth grader asked slowly and with complete sincerity.

CHS Math Students
Win First, Second

Canyon High School math students captured first and second place in division 1-AAA math contest held Tuesday at West Texas State University.

Steve Turpin won first place and Terry Sue West placed second. The two are students of Miss Bess Brillhart and Mrs. Bessie Ellis.

Approximately 400 high school students were on the WTSU campus for the event representing B, A, AA, AAA, and AAAA schools.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

Disparaging everything that has made America great has grown increasingly popular for the past several years. Therefore, it was delightfully refreshing to hear John Wayne and his galaxy of stars happily singing the praises of America in his television special "Sing Out, Sweet Land."

Recently a black radical rejoiced over the "Chicano" riots, and lamented that relatively few Spanish-speaking Americans were supporting the protests. He insinuated the peaceful majority of Spanish people were being stupidly unaware they were being discriminated against.

Many modern preachers and teachers are telling the younger generation that the great American dream is nothing more than a diabolical fairy tale devised by sinister capitalists to lure poor, ignorant immigrants to America for exploitation.

If that is true, the immigrants must have wised up in a hurry. Many of them have made priceless contributions to the welfare of our nation — and many others are living on that welfare.

If the newcomers to our shores are exploited, they evidently fail to inform their friends and relatives of their fate. More than a half million immigrants pour into this country — legally — every year, and the largest number comes from Mexico.

About 45,000 Mexicans moved into the U.S. last year — in addition to the ones who "swam the river." Could it be that our "discrimination" is preferable to the treatment they received in Mexico? Perhaps our Spanish-speaking citizens are a bit wiser than their black critics.

Our 13 black congressmen have delivered some ultimatums on racial discrimination to President Nixon. Yet statistics indicate non-whites are being favored on almost all fronts. The only really valid claim the protesters have is that the majority of whites still prefer to socialize with whites.

Americans are free to accept or reject friends and neighbors among their own race; why not among other races?

The only balm that will heal the painful schisms in our troubled world is applied truth. American rebels claim they are protesting the war, the draft, and racial discrimination when they burn ROTC buildings, their draft cards, and whole sections of inner cities.

Destroying the Army because one does not like war is like abolishing the fire department because one does not like fires.

And when a man insists on being accepted socially by any group, is he not admitted he feels that group is superior to him? Who ever observed anyone attempting to force acceptance into a group he considered inferior to himself?

Rebellious students in Japan are the most determined of all young radicals, yet Japan has no war, no draft, and no racial discrimination.

Young French rebels were granted their demands until they almost wrecked the nation, and it solved no problems, nor satisfied the protesters.

In Venezuela, students had none of the American, French, nor Japanese causes for rebellion, yet they were probably the most violent rebels of all.

Rebellious young people have rejected the values of the older generation, yet have adopted none of their own. (Idleness, illicit sex, and drugs can scarcely be called values.) The ones who have found nothing worth dying for, have found nothing worth living for.

The rebels really admit they are a miserable lot. If they would try living in obedience to the laws of their Creator and their country, they might find that it is just as easy to be happy as miserable — and a lot more fun.

"A Child Of Our Time" On FAB Stage Tonight

"A Child Of Our Time," an oratorio by Michael Tippett, will be presented by the University Chorus and Orchestra of West Texas State University at 8 p.m. tonight in the Fine Arts Theatre.

Dr. Hugh Sanders, director of Choral Activities, will conduct the oratorio. Mr. Alan Hawkins will conduct the University Orchestra in the Sixth Symphony of Mozart.

Soloists for "A Child Of Our Time" will be Janice Perkins, Amarillo soprano; Margaret Hathaway, Odessa alto; Steven Dwyer, El Paso tenor; Johnny Johnson, Dumas tenor; and Jerry

Doan of the WTSU voice faculty, baritone.

Michael Tippett, the composer of the oratorio "A Child Of Our Time," ranks second only to his friend Benjamin Britten as England's most notable living composer.

Born in 1905, Tippett has often appeared as a lecturer on BBC radio. A collection of these radio lectures are found in his book, Moving Into Aquarius. Since The Midsummer Marriage, an opera written in 1955, more Tippett music has been performed and recorded.

Mrs. Strickland Addresses NPCCLD

Mrs. Hazel Strickland, director of special programs for Canyon Independent School District, will present a discussion on "Handicaps to Learning" at 7:30 o'clock tonight in Amarillo.

Mrs. Strickland will address members of the North Plains Council for Children with Learning Disabilities and interested parents.

The talk will be held in the First Christian Church in Snodgrass Hall in Amarillo.

Canyon schools were selected as one of 12 schools in the state to participate in a pilot program on learning disabilities.

This pilot program, which is state supported, may be an example of what will be provided for all children with learning disabilities when Comprehensive Special Education for Exceptional Children is implemented on a statewide basis in September of 1976, according to Mrs. Strickland.

The meetings began Wednesday, and will continue at 7:30 p.m. tonight and Friday. No services will be conducted Saturday, but the Sunday morning services will complete the conference.

Board Okays Fall Sound, Light Show

A new production, THEY CAME FROM SPAIN, is scheduled to open in the Palo Duro Canyon on Thursday, September 2, 1971, with Eddie Thomas of Dallas as the director.

The people of the Panhandle have raised $66,000 in underwriting to produce this show which will play Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays during September and October of 1971. There will also be Sunday evening performances on Labor Day and Columbus Day week-ends. "TEXAS" is believed to have influenced the success of a financial drive for the fall production.

The new show will use mixed media: light and sound, film and live movement based on techniques developed during the popular first production in the theatre in the summer of 1965, Thundering Sounds of the West.

THEY CAME FROM SPAIN, the fall production, will reveal the story of the Conquistadores, led by Coronado, as they crossed the plains to take refuge in the Palo Duro Canyon. In 1541 they left detailed journals and letters of their impressions and experiences as they crossed the plains. These are the basis for the script of the new show, written by Margaret Harper, who was also one of the authors of the 1965 show.

Designer and director will be Eddie Thomas, a member of the speech department at El Centro College in Dallas. Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Thomas of Amarillo. He spoke at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Heritage Foundation on Sunday about his plans, and painted interesting pictures of ways the story might be told. He also presented a model of set designs. Thomas knows the Palo Duro well. He lived near it in his youth. He created the role of Calvin, the leading man in the "TEXAS" production, and played it for two years, learning every whim of the Canyon. His experiences are varied and include community and professional theatre (Little Theatre of the Rockies, Pasadena Playhouse, and the Dallas Repertory Theatre, where he recently finished a run as the leading man in "The Prime of Miss Brodie"). He has also made TV appearances on such programs as "Gunsmoke" and "Alfred Hitchcock." Recent movies in which Thomas has appeared are "Bullet For Pretty Boy," "Splendor in the Grass," and "Going All Out."

Thomas received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees in acting and directing at West Texas State University, and has had advanced study in these fields in professional schools on both coasts.

Technical designer for the production will be Bill Rhew, who has been working for several years on the problems involved. Rhew produced the first sound demonstration in the Canyon. He experimented with sound reproduction in the area discovering the attributes which are the basis for the splendid sound system in the Pioneer Amphitheatre. Working with Joe Batson, Mr. Rhew designed and supervised the construction of the sound building and designed the equipment. He made the sound track for THUNDERING SOUNDS OF THE WEST.

Miss Westhoff Weds Leo Freeby

Catherine Westhoff became the bride of Leo Freeby Saturday at the St. Mary's Church in Umbarger.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Westhoff of Umbarger. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Freeby of Weinart.

The sanctuary was decorated with a bouquet of Easter Lilies and another of daisies and yellow carnations.

The Rev. M. F. Schafle of Umbarger officiated at the ceremony.

Dorothy Wieck, cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor. Lee Ross, the groom's brother-in-law, served as the best man.

Bridesmaids were Dorothy Freeby, sister of the groom, and Deloris Artho, niece of the bride.

Groomsmen were Vincent Meyer, brother-in-law of the bride, and Steve Wieck.

Virgil Artho, nephew of the bride, and Jim Wieck, cousin of the bride, served as ushers.

Music selections were played by Mrs. Don Dolle, organist, and sang by the St. Mary's Choir.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length formal gown of Alencon lace over peau de soie satin with long puffed sleeves and empire styled bodice. The gown featured a recontrolled, re-embroidered Alencon lace overskirt. The front of the gown was outlined with sequins and beads.

A cathedral length veil of French illusion fell to the floor from a double bow headpiece which was accented with lace, sequins, and seed pearls. The train was edged with lace and accented with a sprinkling of lace flowers.

The bride carried a bouquet of two dozen white roses and pom pom daisies.

The attendants wore gowns of yellow chiffon over satin in an empire style which featured a high neckline. White venetian lace accented the waistline, neck, and the cuffs on the long puffed sleeves. Each carried white baskets of daisies and daffodils.

A reception was held at St. Mary's Parish Hall in Umbarger. Mrs. Steve Wieck served the cake and Mrs. Jim Wieck and Mrs. Marion Hicks served the punch. Mrs. George Frank presided at the guest book.

Others assisting were Karen Artho and Ann Handing.

The bride traveled in a long waisted street length fashion with white bodice and lime green pleated skirt with matching blazer jacket. The bride wore white accessories.

After a wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico the couple will be at home at 242 Greenwood in Hereford.

The bride graduated from Mt. St. Mary Academy in Little Rock, Arkansas in 1965 and from St. Anthony's School of Nursing in Amarillo in 1968. She is a registered nurse and is employed at the Public Health Clinic in Hereford.

The groom attended Ranger Junior College in Ranger and Stephen F. Austin in Nacogdoches after graduating from Weinart High School in 1965. He is currently employed at the Deaf Smith County Hospital.

BUICK BARGAIN DAYS ARE HERE

Buick Bargain Days are saving days.

A bargain price on a stripped-down car is no bargain. But a Buick or Opel at a bargain is something else again. Because we're not selling some special stripped-down model. We're selling Buicks and Opels, the same great cars we've sold all year.

With one difference. The deals have never been better. Which means that you can move out in a new Buick or Opel at a price that's hard to believe. When Buick talks about a bargain, we give you something to believe in.

Opel 1900 Sport Coupe. With a 1.9 liter engine that operates efficiently on low-lead or no-lead gasolines. hydraulic valve lifters for quiet engine operation, power front disc brakes and more.

Skylark Custom. With Buick's exclusive nickel-plated engine exhaust valves for smoother operation on today's cleaner fuels. Comfort-Flo ventilation system and more.

Your Buick-Opel dealer will give you better reasons to buy a new car now than anybody else.

The business of auto safety.

Auto safety is everyone's concern. But it's our business.

And we think the attention that's being paid to auto safety now is a good thing. Because it will result in better driving for everyone.

And, frankly, better driving for everyone means better business for us.

We say Buick is something to believe in. That's why we're trying to make it easy to be safe by putting in safety features that work by themselves. You don't have to do anything to make them work.

Like side guard beams. And the energy absorbing steering column. And the cargo guard between the trunk and back seat. They start "working" even before you get in the car.

But two safety features, two of the most vital, are worthless unless you do something first.

Seat and shoulder belts. Unfastened they do nothing. And you've seen enough statistics to know what a difference they can make. So use them.

But that's not all you can do. Because the most effective safety feature of all can't be added to our cars or anybody else's.

That feature is you. And the way you drive. Which should be defensively. And rested. And sober.

We're all in this together. And together we can solve the auto safety problem once and for all.

And the time is now.

WT Art Instructors To Teach Summer Classes In Ruidoso

Margaret Campbell and Jerri Warren, both art teachers at West Texas State University, will hold Art Workshops during the summer at the Carrizo Lodge in Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Mrs. Campbell will give instruction in acrylics from June 7 through June 18. Class sessions will be held from 9 a.m. til noon and from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Mrs. Warren will teach a class on drawing and sketching from June 7 through June 18. Times will be the same as above.

Margaret Campbell has taught drawing, design, watercolor and beginning and advanced classes in acrylics and oils for the past seven years at West Texas State University.

Her workshop emphasizes painting from nature and all work is done from preliminary sketches. Because acrylics can be applied to almost any surface in so many ways, they are probably the least expensive media for the artist.

The acrylic workshop is designed so that the beginner as well as the advanced student may explore the many different ways of working with acrylic paint. It will include collage and painting with suggestions for framing and craft work.

Mrs. Campbell attended the University of Texas for 3 years, and received her BS and M.Ed. degrees at West Texas State University. She is currently working toward the MFA degree at Texas Tech.

Jerri Warren's course has been designed to offer the basic, fundamental art of drawing and sketching that can lead to the development of an inexpensive hobby.

The general approach of the course will be traditional techniques, stressing compositions and design of drawing and sketching in pencil, charcoal and graphite materials that are simple, readily available and easy to carry without too much inconvenience.

Mrs. Warren has a B.S. degree in Art and a Masters degree in Art Education. She has worked in the field of commercial designs for various civic organizations, brochure designs and magazine ads.

Her specialization is the beginner and the non-art students Mrs. Warren believes that most people can be taught to draw with a fair degree of accuracy and to acquire some competency.

The workshop will include demonstrations, personal assistance and instruction in outdoor drawing and sketching of trees, landscapes, and buildings.

Each class will run $70 for the two-week session.

Requests to take the course or for the summer, 1971 brochure should be made to Herb and Pauline Greggerson, Carrizo Lodge, Inc. Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Mrs. Jerri Ward

Umbarger News

BY SUSAN DOLLE

Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Friemel announce the birth of their fourth son, Stanley Pius. The infant was born Monday morning, April 19, at 3:23 a.m., weighing 7 pounds and 4 ounces.

The Friemels, who farm north of Umbarger, have six other children; Steven, Jimmy, Monica and Denise, who attend Umbarger Elementary; and Freddy and Grace of the home.

Grandparent of the new baby is Mrs. Mary Friemel of Amarillo.

Miss Jeanette Friemel has recently completed studies in preparation for becoming a Registered Licensed Vocational Nurse. The course, which was offered by Amarillo Junior College, began in March, 1970. Miss Friemel spent part of her training at St. Anthony's Hospital and High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo.

She is currently employed by St. Anthony's and will participate in graduation exercises in Amarillo Junior College in May. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Friemel and is a 1968 graduate of Canyon High School.

The Umbarger K of C Hall was the site Sunday for the initiation of nineteen new members into the Knights of Columbus. The ceremonies were conducted by the initiating team from Amarillo. New members who received both the Formation and the Knighthood degrees were initiated into the Dumas, Borger, and Umbarger Councils. Those from the Umbarger Council who received the degrees were Arnold Artho, Edward Artho, Dale Artho, Ralph Batenhorst, Philip Brandt, David Ehly, Robert Friemel, Wayne Friemel, Stanley Handing, Dennis Hartman, Charlie Stocker, Kenneth Wieck and Mike Wieck.

Pistols and Petticoats Square Dancing Club entertained 126 guests and club members Sunday night, April 18. Mr. Vincent Meyer, president, recognized thirty-six guests from the Amarillo clubs: Ye Olde Squares, Chiefs and Squaws, Belles and Beaus, Levis and Lace, Grand Squares and Reddy Squares. A group from Tips and Toes traveled from Lockney for the evening's dance, which was called by Herrick Allen. The traveling banner was taken by Ye Olde Squares of Amarillo. Dancing lessons were given at 3:00 and again at 6:00 Sunday evening.

The CYO Junior High and High School volleyball teams will travel to Nazareth Friday night, April 23, to compete against the Nazareth Swifts. The first of the four games will begin at 7:30. Coach for the team is Mr. Walter Cranmer of Canyon. He is being assisted this season by Mr. Tom Payne of Umbarger.

Lights All-Red For Fire Calls

Deputy fire chief Joe Rice warns Canyon drivers and pedestrians that when a fire call is received the lights on the corners of Fourth Avenue and 15th and 16th Streets are switched to all-red long enough to get the fire trucks out of the station and on their way to the emergency.

"If a person comes up to that light and realizes that all lights are red, they should wait for the trucks to pass," Rice said. "They may have to wait a few minutes, but we don't take long to get around that corner."

Curtis Is Booster President

Jim Curtis was named president of the Canyon Eagle Booster Club Monday night.

He replaces Weldon Trice in that capacity. Curtis currently is in the insurance business and formerly was an assistant coach at West Texas State University under Joe Kerbel.

Plans were made for the annual all-sports banquet which will be held at 7:30 p.m. May 15 in the Canyon High School gymnasium. In charge of program arrangements is Mrs. Harold J. Prichard.

Coach B. B. Kendrick will be master of ceremonies. Tickets will go on sale at $2.50.

Policemen To Show Bomb Effect

Canyon Police Chief Calvin Costley and eight of his men will present a demonstration on bombing and its effects on cars and structures during a five-day school at Amarillo College April 26-30.

The course is entitled "Bomb Matters." Those who attend will receive 30 hours of credit toward their law enforcement accreditation.

Baseball Schedule Changed

West Texas State University's baseball team, through no fault of its own, took last week off and has a heavy slate this week.

The Buffaloes were to have played Lubbock Christian College Monday, April 12, but high winds and cold weather caused those two games to be postponed. They were slated to meet LCC Tuesday for two games and close their season this week-end with four games at Las Vegas, N.M., against New Mexico Highlands.

Since falling in a pair of games earlier this season to LCC in Lubbock, the Buffs of coach Bob Sloan rebounded strongly. Their record, entering Tuesday's double-header against LCC, was 16-12.

The Buffaloes are entered in the Missouri Valley Conference baseball tournament. The opening session of that tourney is April 30 and May 1 at Tulsa, Okla. The four teams remaining after the first week will conclude the tourney May 7-8 at Louisville, Ky.

Tornado. . .

police chief Calvin Costley assured, "all of our cars and the fire equipment will be out on the streets driving up and down each block sounding their sirens to alert
people."
He continued, "We will get to all parts of the city as quickly as we can to notify those who may not hear the large siren."
"Our officials will not hesitate to blow the warning," Rice said, "But they will not blow it needlessly."
The siren was not sounded Monday morning when storm warnings were issued for this area of the Panhandle, because, said fire chief Jack Jennings, "we watched the clouds, and kept in touch with the weather bureau,
and to our best knowledge
we did not feel Canyon was in that great a danger." He pointed out that city officials were alerted and made aware of the possible storm,
but the decision was made
not to sound the warning.
Where do I go if I hear a warning?

Canyon folks fled to points of safety Monday morning, but many didn't know where to seek shelter and they called the sheriff office dispatcher for protection information.
"We recommend people seek shelter in the following places," said Rice. 1. storm cellars, 2. southwest corner of a basement, 3. interior hallway and cover yourself and your family with a mattress or another heavy object, 4. public buildings including the basement of the courthouse annex, the basement of the old administration building, the University Complex South, the new administration building, the Student Activities Center,
the library basement, the science building basement,
all on the WT campus, the boiler room and tunnel at Canyon High School.
"If a tornado hits, people
are urged to stay in safe places until the storm passes,
and then to go home and remain there unless notified by someone in command of emergency procedures to come and help," urged Rice.
And while residents are seeking safety, what are the workers doing to protect the city and its inhabitants?
"We will divide the city into sections, depending on where the disaster strikes," said Rice.
The city police will immediately take charge of traffic control, crowd control, and looting problems.
Search and rescue will be the primary function of the fire department, and the street and sanitation department will simultaneously begin clearing streets and al-leyways so emergency equipment can function unhindered.
The Emergency Operation Center will be located at the fire station, "if the fire station is not damaged." If the fire station is in the midst of the storm, the fire chief's car, which is equipped with all communication equipment, will be parked as near
the fire station as possible,
and will direct operations from there until a more permanent location can be found In the EOC will be the city manager, the mayor and the commissioners, the fire chief and the police chief. All emergency operations will be directed from this center,

and communications will be drafted through the central facilities.
Emergency medical assistance will be set up at the student union building on the West Texas State University
campus, under the direction of Dr. Dudley Moore.
"All injuries should first
be taken to the student union, and from there people will be directed to hospitals in the area, or they will be treated and released," Rice stressed.
He said people are urged
not to rush to the hospital,
so that hospital facilities
will remain open and clear for serious emergencies.
Makeshift lodging will be provided, but as city manager George Louder pointed out, it will depend on where the storm hits.
"We will make provisions for people probably close to the storm site," Louder pointed out. "We do have some places in mind, but again, this will depend in what part of the city we end up servicing."

Dr. T. Paige Carruth, dean of student life at WT, said that housing could be provided at the university during the spring and summer semesters.
"We have very little housing available during the fall," Carruth said, "but we can house up to a couple of hundred in the spring and around 1,500 in the summer."
Louder did explain that city employees will be asked to be on hand in case of a disaster in order to help protect city records, move them
from the city hall if necessary, and to help man
phones for communication purposes.
Also, Rice noted that before the city ever sights a tornado, fire equipment trucks will be removed from the station and driven to other parts of the city, in order to get the equipment spread out throughout the city so all of it would not be destroyed if the station were struck.
Baker I seems to fill most of the gaps which might arise in emergency stress,
but what Baker I cannot do
is begin reconstruction.
That is when the people of Canyon can be of help. The majority of folks can only seek shelter, and remain calm during and immediately following the storm, but they can carry the brunt of the responsibility of rebuilding and healing the city's wounds, if a disaster strikes Canyon.

Abernethy said a 16-station teletype circuit will be installed in mid-July and spoke briefly of the police academy at Amarillo College and the drug education program funded through PRPC and being carried out
by PESO.
The city of Follett was accepted into the PRPC
bringing total membership to 56. Panhandle State Bank & Trust Company of Borger
was named PRPC depository.
Canyon people were named to five PRPC committees.
J.S. Lawrence and Vincent Meyer, Sr., were placed on the environmental committee. Former Canyon Mayor Paul Lindsey was named to the natural resources committee.
John Fulgenzi, Randall County commissioner, was placed on the transportation
and land use committee.
Ken Olsen, former Canyon city commissioner, was appointed chairman of the criminal justice board which will work with Judge Abernethy. The board will have 25 members.
Dr. A. J. Luquette of the West Texas State University
Physical Education Department was named chairman of the recreation and open space committee. George Rit-

ney, administrative assistant.
The court took eight bids
on fuels and greases and 13
on accessories for the county road department but will not make a decision until next week.
Canvass was made of the county trustee election.
Don Marsh was elected from Precinct 4 receiving the only three votes cast in that race in the county. Mrs. Joy Watson of Precinct 2 was the only candidate there and since no votes were cast will be held over on the board.
A painting of Clarence Beckman, former county commissioner, was shown at the meeting. The portrait was painted by Max Stewart.
Commissioner John Ful-genzi reported on a right of way hassle between Miss Harriet Carter who is associated with Lewis Hyman in Professional Landscaping
and Southwestern Public Service Company.
Miss Carter says SWPC is trespassing on what she considers her property.
Miss Carter says the misunderstanding began more than 30 years ago when Commissioner W. E. "Lash"
Bennett made an oral deal with Henry Bassett to put the road through Bassett property instead of across an adjacent lakebed in north Randall County.
In return for the road site
the county gave Bassett 40 feet off the west side of the adjoining section.
Fulgenzi said the utility firm has three deadmen and several guy wires in what is actually county right of way.
Fulgenzi said the company plans to replace the poles and guy wires with steel towers some time in the future and then there will be no encroachment on the right of way.
Commissioner Bill Butler
expressed concern that someone may fail to turn at the bend in Coulter Road and might run into some of the guy wires in the right of way.
He is afraid the county might be liable in such an event and suggested that a hold harmless agreement be secured from the utility company.

dents sought protection
from the storm, finding it in the boiler room underneath
the ground at Canyon High School, in the basement of the First National Bank and the Randall County Courthouse Annex.
John Sommers, principal of the high school, said between 150 and 175 adults,
kids, dogs, were housed during the height of the wind and rain Monday morning
at the school.
"We have been told that the boiler room and tunnel between the cafeteria and the main building are tornado proof," Sommers explained. "So we have several school people who live near the high school and who have keys in case of just such an emergency. They will be able to get into the boiler room and allow residents to seek shelter there."

R CLINICAL JUDGEMENT
IS A PHYSICIAN ASSET

It is a faculty a physician, after years of medical study, develops through experience in the practice of medicine. It enables him to make the right decisions about diagnosis, treatment, and prognosis (the ability to forecast the future of a disease). This medical wisdom comes from the professional observation of patients.

The clinical judgement of physicians, an ability no layman possesses, is the reason why it is wise to consult a physician at the first sign of any illness.
